

At least three different numbering schemes are identified by stone markers in Mount Olive. Some marker stones have moved or been replaced by family corner markers (usually initials) making it difficult to identify the original sections and rows. Some markers have numbers (404); some have section/ numbers (D77)